DAY 1 SINGAPORE – CHENGDU (Meals On Board)

Assemble at Singapore Changi Airport for your flight to Chengdu, the provincial capital of Sichuan. Upon arrival, check in to the hotel.

DAY 2 CHENGDU – ABA (Breakfast/Lunch/Tibetan & Qiang Ethnic Show Dinner)

After breakfast, board the high-speed train to Zhenjiangguan. Upon arrival, head to Songpan Ancient Town and take a leisurely stroll along its bustling ancient streets to soak in its culture and unique charm. It is home to the largest Muslim community in the Aba Tibet and Qiang Autonomous Prefecture, often referred to as the gateway to western Sichuan. Next, visit Songpan North Mosque, located within the town. With a history of more than 200 years, it serves as a significant place of worship for the Hui ethnic group in the area. Thereafter, proceed to the source of Minjiang River. The river runs through the city and into the Chengdu Plain, blessing it with fertile lands. Tonight, enjoy a Tibetan & Qiang ethnic show dinner showcasing the cultural heritage of the communities.

DAY 3 ABA (Breakfast/Lunch/Wild Mushroom Hotpot Dinner)

After breakfast, proceed to Jiuzhai Valley National Park, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The park gets its name from the 9 Tibetan villages scattered throughout the park. Discover an extraordinary reserve boasting unparalleled natural beauty. Imagine jagged alpine peaks towering over dense coniferous forests, creating a magical landscape filled with crystal-clear lakes, breathtaking waterfalls, intricate limestone terraces, narrow conic karst formations and a diverse array of wildlife. Explore iconic spots like Five Flower Lake and Five Coloured Pond for their fabled blue and green waters. Another must-visit is Nuo Ri Lang Waterfall which is the widest travertine topped-waterfall in the world and one of the iconic sights of Jiuzhai Valley. Tonight, enjoy a wild mushroom hotpot dinner.

Note

During peak season, the waiting time for sightseeing buses at each attraction is approximately 1 to 2 hours.

DAY 4 ABA – CHENGDU (Breakfast/Lunch/Dinner)

After breakfast, visit Huanglong National Scenic Area, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The name Huanglong translates to yellow dragon and when seen from a distance, its numerous travertine formations look like an enormous, golden dragon winding through the valley, weaving between the snow-capped mountain peaks. Enjoy a 1-way cable car ride and sightseeing bus to view the numerous terraces of coloured limestone ponds in hues blue, green, orange, yellow and white. The water in these pools is exceptionally clear, allowing naked-eye visibility of the bottom. During autumn, these pools reflect the changing leaves, adding even more splendour to the scene. In the evening, enjoy a high-speed train ride back to Chengdu. Upon arrival, check in to the hotel.

DAY 5 CHENGDU (Breakfast/Lunch/Get-Together Dinner)

After breakfast, visit Huangcheng Mosque, established in the 16th century. It serves as the headquarters of the Islamic Association of Sichuan province. After lunch, proceed to Heming Tea House, situated in Chengdu People's Park. Dating back to 1923, this tea house is among the oldest in Chengdu. Relish the unique experience of relaxing and sipping tea poured from a long-spout teapot, savouring its local taste and experience the cosy lifestyle of Chengdu. Thereafter, proceed to Huanglongxi Ancient Town which has been restored to retain its rustic charm with ancient cobbled streets, bridges, wharves and shops selling local souvenirs. The charming landscape with shops along its curving alleys has become the backyard garden for the locals. Tonight, enjoy a get-together dinner.

DAY 6 CHENGDU (Breakfast/Lunch)

This morning, visit Chengdu Research Base of Giant Panda Breeding to get up close with China's national treasure, the panda. Seize this chance to capture their adorable moments as you observe them in their natural habitat. Next, proceed to Kuanzhai Alley, a charming area comprising three parallel lanes adorned with traditional Chinese architecture. It is an ideal spot for a leisurely stroll, browsing for souvenirs and immersing in the local culture. After lunch, you can choose to shop at Chunxi Road and Taikoo Li. These bustling areas are known for their wide variety of shopping options, offering everything from designer brands to local specialities.

DAY 7 CHENGDU – SINGAPORE (Breakfast/Meals On Board)

If time permits, you can do some last-minute shopping before you transfer to the airport for your flight home.

DAY 6 CHENGDU (Breakfast/Lunch/Dinner)

This morning, visit Chengdu Research Base of Giant Panda Breeding to get up close with China's national treasure, the panda. Seize this chance to capture their adorable moments as you observe them in their natural habitat. Next, proceed to Kuanzhai Alley, a charming area comprising three parallel lanes adorned with traditional Chinese architecture. It is an ideal spot for a leisurely stroll, browsing for souvenirs and immersing in the local culture. After lunch, proceed to Jinli Ancient Street. It is a vibrant cultural destination that showcases the essence of Sichuan folk culture through its traditional western Sichuan architecture and rich integration of Three Kingdoms culture. You can enjoy a diverse range of activities including savouring local snacks, exploring scenic landscape and experiencing live folk performances. The street also offers unique shopping opportunities for crafts and local specialities.

DAY 7 CHENGDU (Breakfast/Lunch/Dinner)

This morning, proceed to Dujiangyan Irrigation System, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. It is one of the world's oldest irrigation systems without a dam, built in the 3rd century BC to control the waters of the Minjiang River and distribute them to the fertile farmlands of the Chengdu Plain. Stroll along Dujiangyan Old Town and visit Nanjie Mosque. The town's location along the ancient trade route allowed ethnic groups to settle alongside the Han Chinese, establishing their social and religious institutions. Get your camera ready at Yangtianwo Square to capture a photo with the selfie panda sculpture by Dutch artist Florentijn Hofman. This sculpture features a giant panda lying on its back, poised to take a selfie, measuring 26.5 metres long, 11 metres wide and 12 metres tall and weighs an astonishing 117,934 kilograms.

DAY 8 CHENGDU (Breakfast)

Today, you can choose to shop at Chunxi Road and Taikoo Li at your leisure. These bustling areas are known for their wide variety of shopping options, offering everything from designer brands to local specialities. You may also take the subway to explore other parts of Chengdu.
